

Citizens for Patient Safety (CPS)

Citizens for Patient Safety (CPS) is a global grassroots organization. The agency builds alliances between and within diverse communities by building bridges between consumers, the medical community, insurance agencies, and legal groups to improve the health care system and the quality of care that patients receive.

Consumer Health Information Corporation

The Consumer Health Information Corporation provides educational resources, including programs, services, and fact sheets for consumers, health care providers, and pharmaceutical companies.

Consumers Advancing Patient Safety (CAPS)

Consumers Advancing Patient Safety (CAPS) works to create successful relationships between consumers and providers to prevent misunderstandings and potentially harmful mishaps. The website features news, programs, and resources.

Empowered Patient Coalition

The Empowered Patient Coalition is a non-profit, 501(c)3 charitable organization that is a consumer- and advocate-led effort to inform, engage, and empower the public to assume greater roles in their medical treatment and become a driving force for meaningful health care reform.

Family Doctor.org

FamilyDoctor.org is an educational resource for patients that offers a glossary of conditions, a symptom search catalog, and resources on topics including healthy living, patient safety, and medications.

Hospice Patients Alliance

The Hospice Patients Alliance is a non-profit charitable organization that works to ensure standards of care during the end-of-life period.

Institute for Family-Centered Care

The Institute for Family-Centered Care is a non-profit organization that supports the development of patient and family-centered care. The Institute offers aid in creating patient and family advisory councils as well as educating patients, families, students, and trainees on medical topics.

Medically Induced Trauma Support Services (MITSS)

Medically Induced Trauma Support Services (MITSS), supports and provides hope to patients, families, and clinicians who have been impacted by an adverse medical event. The website allows patients and families to share personal stories, read stories concerning the medically induced trauma of others, and access patient and family resources.

National Consumers League (NCL)

The National Consumers League (NCL) is a national, non-profit organization that has represented consumers and workers since 1899. NCL provides prescription and over-the-counter medication information to consumers to help them take their medication safely and effectively.

National Empowerment Center

The National Empowerment Center strives to support those who have been diagnosed with mental illness. The website includes helpful stories of recovery, resources, links, and numerous publications.

National Family Caregivers Association

The National Family Caregivers Association (NFCA) offers support to those who care for the health of loved ones. The website includes information on family caregivers, resources, the NFCA store, and initiatives.

P.U.L.S.E. (Persons United Limiting Substandards and Errors in Healthcare) of New York

PULSE (Persons United Limiting Substandards and Errors in Healthcare) of New York provides useful information regarding advocacy, education, support, news and events, resources, patient stories, and physician profiles.

Patient Advocate Foundation

The Patient Advocate Foundation is non-profit organization that strives to keep patients safe. The website offers personal help, resources, programs, news, and research.

Society of Critical Care Medicine (SCCM)

The Society of Critical Care Medicine (SCCM) was founded in 1970 to support critically ill patients. Their website includes information on SCCM's annual congress, professional development, public health and policy, publications, and more.